

CTS Internet Acceptable Use Policy

CTS shall provide unrestricted access to all customers (including private, non-profit, business, and government agencies who gain access to the Internet by DSL or direct connection via dedicated circuit) who follow the guidelines of the acceptable use policy.

Acceptable Use Policy

It is not acceptable to use the CTS network for any purpose that violates local, state or federal laws or to transmit communication that might be highly offensive or damaging to any recipients. Nor is it acceptable to interfere with or disrupt network users, equipment, or services, which include but are not limited to:

Network

- Attempting to obtain unauthorized access to any network or account. This includes accessing data not intended for the customer, logging into a server or account without being expressly authorized to access or probing the security of other networks.
- Attempts to interfere with the service of others including users, hosts and networks. This includes "denial of service" attacks, "flooding" of networks, deliberate attempts to overload a service and attempts to "crash" any host.
- Reselling any CTS Internet Services

E-mail

- Harassment through language, message frequency or message size.
- Sending messages to any person not wishing to receive it. Requests by the recipient to stop receiving such messages must be respected.
- Sending unsolicited messages which at the judgment of CTS, is disruptive or generates a significant number of user complaints. This includes bulk-mailing of commercial advertising and/or informational announcements.
- Malicious mail, such as "mail bombing" or "Flooding" a user or host with very large and/or frequent pieces of mail.
- Forging message header information.
- Collecting message replies from messages sent through another Service Provider where those messages violate these terms or the terms of that other provider.
- Introducing harmful code and/or viruses on the Internet.

News / UseNet

- Cross posting, UseNet spam, otherwise posting the same messages to large numbers of unrelated newsgroups.
- Posting of message(s) of which the subject matter is unrelated to the content of the newsgroup posted to or generates a significant number of user complaints.
- Posting of binary or executable files to newsgroups not created for that purpose.
- Forging header information.
- Introducing harmful code and/or viruses on the Internet.
- Illegal downloading of copyrighted media, music, or other copyrighted material.

Personal Web Space

- Selling or distributing products or services that are considered unlawful.
- Posting any content advocating ridicule or public scorn towards CTS, its employees, board members or associates.
- Posting of scandalous, threatening, harassing or private information without consent of the person, persons or organizations involved.
- Posting content of nature that is obscene, lewd, lascivious, violent, harassing or objectionable. Set forth by Title 47, U>S>C> Section 230©(2)(A)
- Introducing harmful code and/or viruses on the Internet.
- Hosting bulletin boards of chat sites using personal web space provided with the Service.

Please report misuse of CTS network to ctsinfo@ctstelecom.com

Enforcement & Violation

All usage is under the discretion of CTS. CTS management will review all alleged violations of the policy on a case by case basis. Clear violations of policy which are not promptly remedied by the relevant customer may result in disciplinary action, including, but not limited to immediate termination of service and forfeit of all fees paid to date.

Modifications to Policy

CTS reserves the right to modify this policy at any time.
